UNSURRENDERED

Employment Opportunity Community Wellness Social Services Worker

Summary:

The Netmizaaggamig Nishnaabeg Health Center is seeking a compassionate and motivated Community Wellness Social Services Worker to support individuals, families, and the community through culturally safe and holistic services. This role blends social services, community wellness, and family wellbeing responsibilities, with a focus on mental health, substance use, and strengthening family and community resilience.

Qualifications:

- Diploma or degree in Social Services, Social Work, Indigenous Wellness, or a related field (or equivalent combination of education and experience);
- Experience in social services, family support, or community wellness;
- Knowledge of Indigenous cultures, traditions, and approaches to healing;
- Strong communication, advocacy, and teamwork skills;
- Ability to deliver workshops, presentations, and health promotion activities;
- Ability to maintain confidentiality, cultural safety, and professional ethics;
- Valid driver's license and reliable transportation;
- First Aid and CPR certification;
- The ability to attain and maintain a cleared Canadian Police Information Centre (CPIC) check, including the Vulnerable Sector check;
- Strong morals and ethics, along with a commitment to privacy, and to be willing to follow our social media policy.

Responsibilities:

- Provide direct support to clients and families, maintaining confidentiality and professionalism;
- Develop and deliver culturally relevant wellness, education, and prevention programs;
- Facilitate peer/self-help groups and promote healthier lifestyles;
- Collaborate with the Mental Health and Social Services teams on community programs;
- Build and maintain partnerships with agencies to strengthen service coordination;
- Maintain confidential, accurate records, reports, and documentation according to program standards using Mustimuhw;
- Ensure all client information is collected, stored, and shared in compliance with organizational privacy policy and legislation (e.g., HIPAA);
- Participate in training and professional development to stay current in best practices;
- Commitment to ethics, privacy and documentation using the CEMR (Mustimuhw);
- Other duties as requested.
